The Sovereign Harmony of our BirthSong

We are Shifting from an Age of Separation into the Age of Frequency.
Shifting from Measuring everything to Infinite Relating & Knowing.

I came into this world experiencing deep loss when my twin Sister died in the womb beside me before birth — mirroring our age of separation. And like all of us, by three years old I was conditioned to see everything and everyone as separate. However, at seven years old my Sister began visiting me in my dreams. The nightly tears of deep separation finally ended.

Then in 2013, she took me through a death and held my hand as we crossed over many realms. There, I had an experience with a Pure version of The Creation Music that created you, me and everything. I was serenaded by Creation's True Hum, as my entire being had a homecoming. With tears flowing I told my Sister, "I know this, everyone does." "Robert, this is also your BirthSong." Ah, all Life forms music layered in one harmonic song. When I realized I was experiencing a Pure Mirror of myself and how incredibly Beautiful I am... my survivors guilt melted. And the thoughts that haunted me for decades — that I am not deserving or I am not worthy — shifted into I AM Beautiful, and I AM Creation. I wanted to shout to everyone, "You are so incredibly Beautiful! It's just the dust of Life. How can I help you dust yourself off?"

You are a Song in a body. In the age of remembering — we are remembering the frequency of that song, the largeness of your identity, and your essence across lifetimes.

In this realm that my Sister oriented me to, everyone knew everyone by their Frequency. No longer in our land of measuring, there's no need to compare, contrast, compete, name, label, judge, or wear a mask.

When we are quiet in the forest, we FEEL the trees intimately relating with one another. Another way to look at Intimacy is "Into-me-see." As our Frequency expands, we are embracing our nature, and our PRESENCE is pouring into the world around us through our wide open Cosmic Hearts. The Realms of Frequency and the New World are Birthing through our Song — Be still and Know.

I desire to help people remember they are an incredibly beautiful Song of Creation in Harmony with all of Creation.
